Intimidation – verbal threat, Vladimir Otaševi?, Podgorica, 11.09.2017.

Brother of Montenegrin Prime Minister Duško Markovi?, Velizar Markovi?, has made a death threats to Vladimir Otaševi?, the journalist of Daily Dan.

In a phone call on September 11, along with many primitive and vulgar curses, Markovi? said to Otaševi?: “If you fking continue to use for political purposes my back trying to understand things, then don’t ask yourself why someone gets killed. Do you get it?” Also, he told Otaševi? “I will find you”, which also represents a threat.

Otaševi? had previously written about the family property of the Prime Minister Markovi?, and the property of his brother, Velizar Markovi? which irritated him. Otaševi? called Markovi? the day before to ask for a phone number of his other brother.

The Basic State Prosecutor's Office in Podgorica rejected a criminal complaint against Velizar Markovic, because after investigative actions it found that the threats that Markovic directed to Otasevic did not constitute a criminal offense.
