The representative of Republika Srpska in Russia Dusko Perovic made open threats to Capital's editorial board and editor-in-chief Sinisa Vukelic for publishing the story about Russian investor Rasid Serdarov and the company "Comsar Energy".

In a phone call to the newsroom, Perovic threatened that he would "close" the Capital portal himself if editor Sinisa Vukelic once again wrote anything about the work of "Comsar Energy", stressed that the portal would quickly "be done with" and that editor Vukelic should "better move to Mars". These threats were recorded on an audio recording.
